

LOTSANE SAFARIS

Botswana is Africa's Switzerland; we are sure of this, come and hunt in this super safe super happy country with industry professionals.

Book your next plains game hunt at the stunning Lotsane Safaris in the Tuli Block Reserve of Botswana, Lotsane has a 5-star hotel that will cater for the needs of even the most discerning hunters, in addition to the hotel Lotsane has an upmarket bush camp that works perfectly for those that wish to experience more of the African bush, living in and amongst elephants, leopards, hippo and hyenas to mention but a few.

This is a super strong plains game destination that offers hunters 12,500 hectares of privately owned hunting ground, we have great numbers of eland, kudu, zebra, waterbuck, impala and more.

Lotsane is +-300 kilometres from Gaborone, you should land at Gaborone where we will collect you for your safari, a comfortable 2-hour-30 minutes' drive to camp.

Charter flights from Johannesburg are available, POA.

